the Young People of Their Congregation

The First Baptist paisonage, corner of Factory and Clark streets, presented rather testive appearance last (Friday) night, the occasion of which being reception given to the young unmarried members of their church and congre gation. About lifts of the young people were present, and the evening was most enjoyably spent in animated conversation and in games appropriate to the cocasion. When we say that Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson are most pleasing entertainers, we ex-press the sentiment of all who were present.
